Net Internal Area of Approximately 140m² (1,507 sq ft)
Restaurant Seating Area (94m²) with Kitchen and Ancillary Areas
Characterful Courtyard Garden with Seating for Circa 30 Covers

LOCATION

The property is situated within The Cider Press Centre, part of the historic Dartington Estate, just outside the market town of Totnes in South Devon.

Totnes is a thriving town, well known for its independent businesses, arts culture and strong tourism trade. The town benefits from good road links, with the A385 connecting to the South Devon Expressway (A38), linking Exeter and Plymouth, and to the wider national motorway network. Totnes also has a mainline railway station, providing direct services to Exeter, London Paddington and beyond.

The Dartington Estate itself is a popular destination, attracting year-round visitors with its mix of retail, leisure, hospitality and arts facilities. The Cider Press Centre forms a small but well-established business hub, home to a number of independent occupiers, supported by the wider draw of the Dartington brand.

DESCRIPTION

Unit 7 comprises a café/restaurant premises with well-arranged accommodation, including a fitted commercial kitchen, walk in fridge, internal dining space and ancillary areas. The property benefits from an external trade area with seating for approximately 30 covers, in a characterful garden courtyard.

The café entrance links directly to the Cider Press Centre, benefitting from passing footfall and cross-support from the neighbouring businesses. There is on-site parking for customers and staff. This is a real opportunity for a café/restaurant operator to capitalise on the established footfall and to provide a food and beverage offering to support the surrounding occupiers.
